

Have you seen wild deer in your local area?

DeerScan is a new website for landholders and the community to report deer sightings and problems.

- Deer are becoming a major pest species.
- There are six species across Australia (red, fallow, rusa, sambar, chital and hog).
- Their numbers are increasing.
- Local authorities need your help to map populations and report problems.
- Report all sightings into DeerScan.

www.deerscan.org.au

Download the FeralScan App.

Further information, email feralscan@feralscan.org.au

